

PRODUCT DISCLOSURE SHEET for SME BI 365 Insurance

IMPORTANT NOTE: Please read this Product Disclosure Sheet before you decide to take out the Consequential Loss Policy (Non Tariff). Be sure to also read the general terms and conditions.

Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately. Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us. In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Agent's commission or where there is an intermediary involved	15% of the premium

5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Some of the key terms and conditions that you should be aware of are:

- You may insure on an estimated sum insured in consideration of your Net Takings for previous year, as per your statement of account plus projected profit for the current year, if any. If the actual amount earned is less than the estimated sum insured, a pro-rata return premium not exceeding fifty per cent (50%) of the provisional premium paid will be made in respect of the difference.
- This policy shall cease if your company be wound up or carried on by Liquidator or Receiver or permanently discontinued.
- You must inform your insurance intermediary or us in writing on any material changes during the policy period so that the necessary amendments are endorsed to your policy.
- This insurance is subject to 60 days Premium Warranty, i.e. premium due must be paid and received by us within sixty (60) days from inception. Failing which, policy is automatically cancelled, and we are entitled to the pro rata premium on the period we have been on risk.

Note: The SME Business Interruption 365 insurance policy can only be granted to you when Fire De-tariff Material Damage policy is taken up with us.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover certain losses, such as:

- Loss by extraordinary events taking place during the interruption.
- Loss by restrictions imposed by the authorities on the reconstruction or operation of the business.
- Loss due to lack of sufficient capital for timely restoration or replacement of property destroyed, damaged or lost.
- Loss in consequence of the burning of property by order of any Public Authority.
- Subterranean fire, explosion and spontaneous combustion
- War, Civil War and any act of Terrorism
- Radioactive and nuclear energy risks

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the sample policy contract for the full list of exclusions under this policy.

7. Can I cancel my policy and how do I cancel it?

You may cancel your policy by giving written notice to our company. Upon cancellation you are entitled to a refund of the premium less premium based on our short period rates for the period of the policy which has been in force, subject to the minimum premium to be retained by us. No refund of premium will be allowed if there is a claim under the policy.
